TRIPPING FEET POLKA.

(Revised Edition.)

By CARL BOHM.

Tempo di Polka.

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time. It begins with the tempo marking "Tempo di Polka." and a forte "f" dynamic. The first system contains a crescendo hairpin and a fortissimo "ff" dynamic. The second, third, and fourth systems feature triplets in the right hand and chords in the left hand. The final system includes a "cres." (crescendo) marking.

This image shows a page of musical notation, likely for a piano piece. It consists of five systems of staves, each with a treble and bass clef. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system features a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The third system includes a fortissimo (ff) dynamic and a section marked 'Sua...'. The fourth system begins with a piano (p) dynamic and a 'poco rit.' (poco ritardando) marking. The fifth system concludes with an 'a tempo.' marking. The notation is complex, with many beamed notes and rests, suggesting a fast and technically demanding piece.

This musical score is for a piece titled "Tripping Feet Polka". It is written for piano in 2/4 time. The score consists of five systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The first system includes a first ending (marked "1") and a second ending (marked "2"). The second system continues the melody. The third system features a forte (f) dynamic and triplet markings. The fourth system continues with triplet markings. The fifth system includes a crescendo (cres.) marking, a fortissimo (ff) dynamic, and a piano (p) dynamic marking. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Tripping Feet Polka—4.

A musical score for a piano piece titled "Tripping Feet Polka". The score is written in 2/4 time and consists of five systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. A circled letter "B" is present above the first system. The piece features a variety of musical textures, including single-note lines, chords, and triplets. The dynamics range from piano (p) to fortissimo (f), with a crescendo (cres.) marking in the first system. The score concludes with a final cadence in the fifth system.

Handwritten circled letter: B

Dynamic markings: cres., f, p, mf

Tripping Feet Polka.—G.

A musical score for a piano piece titled "Tripping Feet Polka." The score is written for piano (p) and consists of five systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system begins with a treble staff and a bass staff, both starting with a treble clef. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system features a tempo change to "Piu mosso." and a dynamic marking of "ff". The fourth system continues the piece. The fifth system concludes the piece with a final chord and a double bar line. The score is marked with "ff" (fortissimo) and "p" (piano) dynamics. There are also markings for "ff" and "p" in the first system. The score is written in a clear, legible style with standard musical notation.
