The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time, featuring a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of five systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system includes an introduction and the first measure of the main melody. The subsequent systems continue the melody and accompaniment, with various musical notations such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and chords. The score concludes with a final measure in the fifth system.

The musical score is composed of six systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings like accents and slurs.

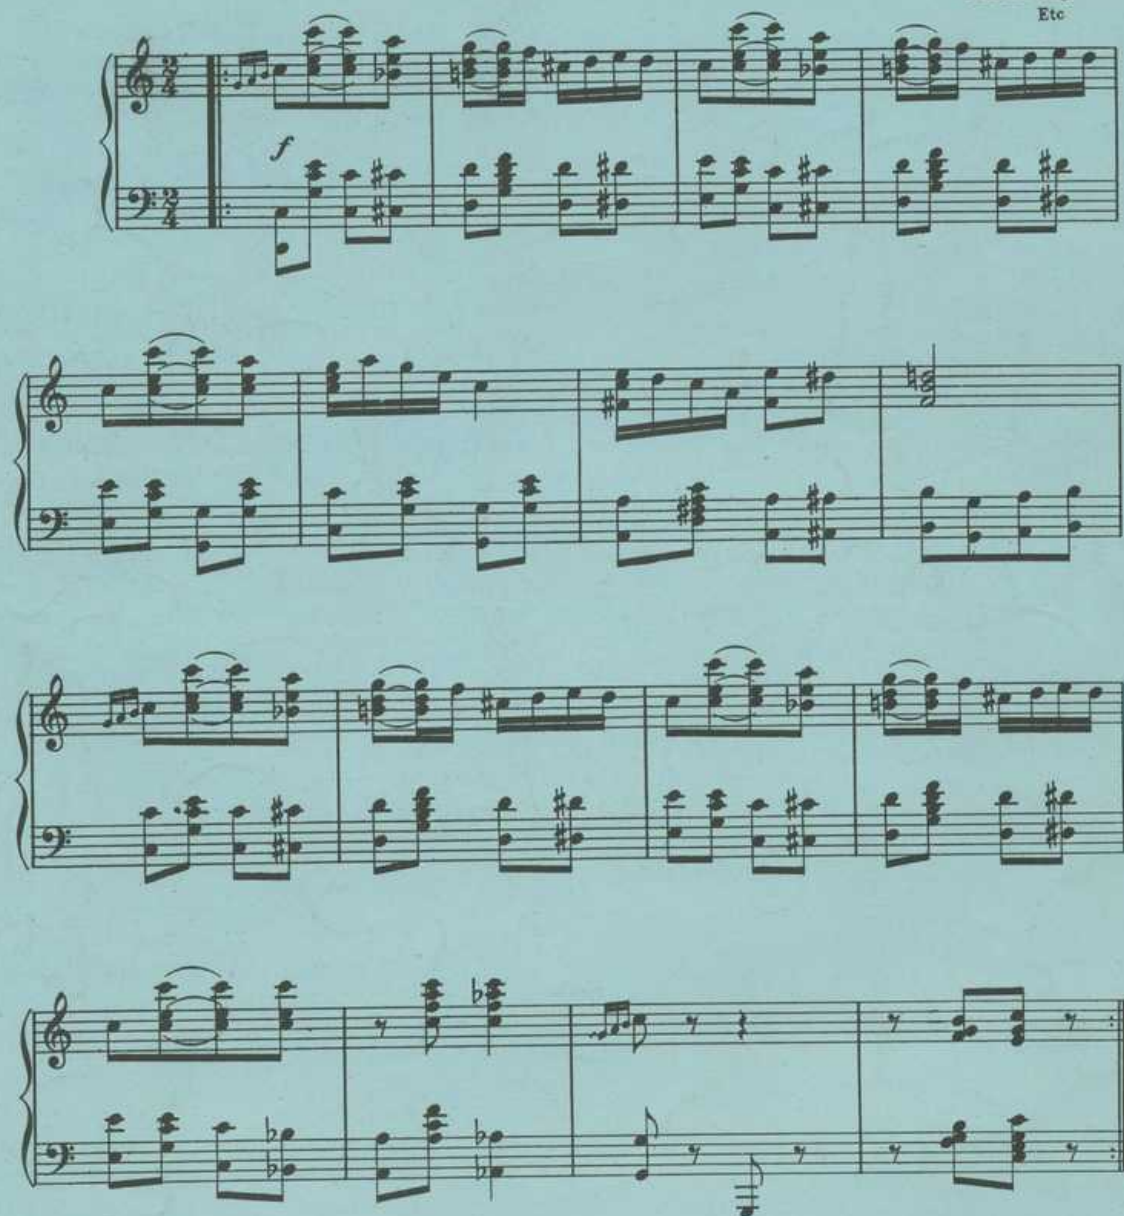

The musical score is arranged in six systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and chords. Some notes are marked with accents. The piece concludes with a double bar line in the third measure of the sixth system.
