"BOWERS SONGS TOUCH THE HEART"

READ THIS!!

Frederick V. Bowers has written songs of the better class for over twenty-five years and has a world-wide reputation of writing "home songs" that appeal to the lovers of clean, wholesome ballads. His compositions should be labeled "Songs of Merit", because they "touch the heart strings" of grandma as well as little brother, sis and mother.

Chorus (with feeling) ten

Want-ing you! Want-ing you! I am al-ways want-ing you. Tell me dear, Tell me, true

Will the old love be the new? All day long. There's a song May be you have heard it too. Hear the call, You are garden

AFTER you've heard everyone praise such masterpieces as the well known "Because," "Wait" and "Always," please be skeptical enough to ask your music dealer to play this beautiful song for you. We know you will sing it over and over again and never tire of this unusual melody that will live forever.

CHORUS

Come to me now when I need you, Bring back your heart and soul and true, Bring back the dream I was miss-ing, Bring back the love we once knew

Come with the light in your eyes, dear, Come and hold me up to the sun, Come and my heart will be glad, Come and I'll be glad you dear

THERE is a pretty love song which the title in itself suggests. Thousands will picture this story in their own lives and find joy and happiness to soothe their tired brains while singing "Come to me now when I need you."

WHERE THE RIPPLING WATERS FLOW
DOWN TO THE MILL

CHORUS (Plaintively)

I long to see the miller at the Mill Wheel I long to see the buck-et in the well I long to see my mother in the door-way and I long to see the Miller's daughter Nell I long to take her in my arms and hold her And ask her if the old love in-gers

A PRETTY ditty of the olden type, with a jingle to its melody that will bring you back to the days when you sat on mother's knee and roamed through the hills and dells without any care or strife.

In-to my life when all was bright You came like a ship one day Out of my life in-to the night like a ship you drift-ed a-way Gone are the tears and the wear-y years I love you that's all I say

A SURE gem which already has forced its way to the front with the best sellers. The melody will grow on you so, that it will actually ring in your ears. What is more beautiful than one of the lines in this song, "I love you that's all I say." Buy a copy and bring sunshine into your heart.
