MY FIREFLY

VERSES BY RAYMOND A.
BROWNE

MUSIC BY HARRY VON TILZER

HARRY VON TILZER
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
42 west 42nd Street
NEW YORK CITY
My Firefly.

 Verses by Raymond A. Browne.
 Music by Harry Von Tilzer.

1. Down a leafy lane two lovers slowly wandered, While the stars looked on and winked from up above. As they strolled he held her hand in his and pondered. How to find her, with her lantern lit, came flying. Then they

Copyright 1906 by Harry Von Tilzer Music Pub. Co. 82 W. 28th St. N.Y.
Chicago Office 13 Clark St. Osages Bldg.
English Copyright secured. All rights reserved.
tell the simple story of his love:

Through the leaves they both flew in a leafy branch near by:

"Dear one, air a little fire-fly west winging. With its two wings you speak the word?"
The lover murmured, "What her lit my lamp to light it on the way?"

As the lover watched the spark gleaming
answer was well may be you can guess,
For they both with love lit eyes watched brightly in the dark. It reminded him of just the thing to lit-tle fire-flies! Who were making love themselves in hap-

My Fire-Fly's
say, To that sweet ness. Then low and clear They seemed to hear her.

CHORUS.

"My little fire-fly" I love but you dear; My little fire-fly I do, I do, dear; My heart that was so dark.

You've lit up with your spark, For you've made the days and nights seem
My little fire-fly
I love you only,

My little fire-fly
I'm very lonely
For you I'm pinning,
So keep on shining,
But shine alone for me, my fire-fly.
"My little fire-fly!"