A mother was kneeling in A hero is now laid to pray. For loved ones at war far a-way.

She
there by her side, Her soul joy and pride, Fought with each son, The battles held won; And the battles that proved a death. Then came a knock on the door, Your boy is commanded to war. She was the hero by far. No, Captain please, They gave the guns, But here on my knees, I plead for one I adore.

Don't take my darling boy away.
CHORUS

Don't take my darling boy away from me,

Don't send him off to war,

You took his father and brothers three,

Now you come back for more.

Don't take my darling boy away
Who are the heroes that fight your wars, Mothers who have no say. But my duty's done, so for God's sake leave one, And don't take my darling boy away.

Don't take my darling boy away.
