The song is described as a "sun-rise" and "sun-morn's" tale, with phrases like "Two lovers met up on a sun-morn's day, in the sun-ry" and "The birds, so sweetly sing-ing, seemed to His face so warm and her hair so..."
CHORUS.

For there was sunshine so brightly beam ing,

— Beam ing in your eyes so clear and blue,

— And there were roses, the fairest roses, On your cheeks a blooming too, And when the
