The first system of musical notation for 'Glad Rags' consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The music features a complex rhythmic pattern with many eighth and sixteenth notes. There are several dynamic markings, including accents (^) and staccato (stacc.) marks. A fermata is placed over the final measure of the system, which is marked with a '3' above it, indicating a triplet.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It features similar rhythmic complexity and dynamic markings as the first system. The bass line has a prominent melodic line with some slurs. The upper staff continues with intricate rhythmic patterns.

The third system of musical notation shows further development of the piece. It includes a variety of chordal textures and rhythmic figures. The bass line has some rests and slurs, while the upper staff continues with active melodic lines. The system concludes with a fermata and a final chord.

The fourth system of musical notation introduces a first ending (marked '1') and a second ending (marked '2'). The first ending leads back to an earlier part of the piece, while the second ending provides an alternative conclusion. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns and dynamic markings.

The fifth and final system of musical notation concludes the piece. It features a variety of rhythmic patterns and dynamic markings, leading to a final cadence. The bass line has some rests and slurs, while the upper staff continues with active melodic lines.

Musical notation for the first system, measures 1-4. The piece is in 2/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The right hand features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes, while the left hand provides a bass line with chords and single notes. A 'V' marking is present above the final measure of the right hand, and 'L.H.' is written below the final measure of the left hand.

Musical notation for the second system, measures 5-8. The right hand continues with eighth-note patterns, and the left hand features a bass line with chords and single notes. A 'y' marking is present above the third measure of the right hand.

TRIO.

Musical notation for the first system of the Trio section, measures 9-12. The time signature changes to 3/4. The right hand has a melody with eighth notes, and the left hand has a bass line with chords. A 'f' (forte) dynamic marking is present at the beginning.

Musical notation for the second system of the Trio section, measures 13-16. The right hand continues with eighth-note patterns, and the left hand has a bass line with chords.

Musical notation for the third system of the Trio section, measures 17-20. The right hand has a melody with eighth notes, and the left hand has a bass line with chords. A 'y' marking is present above the final measure of the right hand.
