

*"His gallant charger tramps the lawn,
And brightly shines his massy spear."*

THE KNIGHT FROM PALESTINE.

Balto. Published by Geo. Willig Jr.

Lith. of Endicott & Swett.

41

THE KNIGHT FROM PALESTINE

Romantic Ballad

Written, Composed, & Dedicated to his Friend

M. SWETT.

by
JOHN H. HEWITT.

Baltimore Published & Sold by G. Willig Jr. No. 449 Market St.

ANIMATO.

2d. Str. The warder blew a quiv'ring note, It echoed o'er the waving brake And swiftly

Blow warder blow thy brazen horn, The champion of the cross is near; His gallant sped the champion's boat Thro' the bright waters of the lake.

chargee tramps the lawn, And brightly shines his massy spear.

The idea of the first strain is taken from a French melody, J.H.H.

THE KNIGHT FROM PALESTINE
M. SWETT

The lady rush'd to greet her lord, And fondly in his
 He safe re- turns from Pales- tine His sword is red, bruist arms she fill; He kiss'd her neck of snowy white, For then he knew she is his shield; No more shall he in shackles pine, No more tra-verse the lov'd him well, Now mer-ri-ly the bells do ring, And bright-ly cross and gory field. Then mer-ri-ly the harp shall sound. The hails with cost-ly ban-ner shine; The min- strels strike their harps and sing, The no- ble knight from feats shall shine; Then war-der send the sig- nal round, Thy knight re- turns from Palestine.
 Palestine.

"Knight from Palestine"