Moderato

A maid one day, gave her heart a - way, To a boy who loved her so; —
One morn' in May, his soul pass'd a - way, And he left his gems and gold, —

— Then an old man with gold offer'd for-tunes un - told, If she'd wed, and — She was lone-ly and sad as she thought of the lad, And his love which

My heart is more than your gold can buy, . Yes, more than your jew-els so rare, _____ Price-less gems in love's cas - ket lie, For those who do, and dare; _____ You have the gold, Still my heart can't be sold, Tho' you are bid-ding so high, _____ For love holds the key, unlocks it for me, My heart is more than your gold can buy.

locks it for me, My heart is more than your gold can buy.
