were, Rob - in, Why so sad and strange? You once were blithe and gay, Rob - in, church, Rob - in, I look'd a - round for you; I thought you'd see me home, Rob - in, As danc'd, Rob - in, Be - neath the haw-thorn tree; I thought you'd sure - ly come, Rob - in, If

What has made you change? You nev - er come to see me now, As once you used to once you used to do— But now you seem a - fraid to come, And al - most ev' - ry but to dance with me. But Al - lan ask'd me first, and so I joined the reel with do..... I miss you at the wick - et gate, You al - ways let me thro'; It's day..... I meet you in the mead - ows And you look the oth - er way; You him..... But I was hea - vy heart - ed And my eyes with tears were dim, And ve - ry hard to o - pen, But you nev - er come and try..... Wont you tell me nev - er bring me po - sies now, (The last is dead and dry)..... oh, how ve - ry grave you look'd As once we pass'd you by.....

why? Ro - bin, Wont you tell me why? Wont you tell me why? Ro - bin, Oh wont you tell me why?
