

Parthenia Vickers

Parthenia John Sing

A New Negro Melody by Will Marion Cook
the Composer of "In Dahomey"

Sing Sung by Gibbie Mitchell

Published by Permission of Will Marion Cook
Owner of the Copyright

Photo by MARCEAU
N.Y.

PARTHENIA JOHNSING

Words by HUGH MORTON

Music by WILLIAM MARION COOK

Brightly

1. In me you see the prod - uct of the lat - est fe - male
2. My Pa - pa's rep - u - ta - tion as the lead - er of his fad, Of high - er ed - u - ca - tion quite a quan - ti - ty I've set, And my high - er ed - u - ca - tion makes me quite the so - cial

Copyright 1902 by William Marion Cook.

had. Je parle Fran-cais, Und spre-che Deutsch, Ach, pet.' At ev'-ry high-tone gath-er-ing, And at Ja! Oui tout au-fait! But En-lish has the ev'-ry swell af-fair, As soon as I step

dear-est charms, when I hear peo-ple say:
in the hall you hear the folks de-clare:

CHORUS
Ev'-ryone loves a Par-the-nia John-sing, Kase she is so fair!

a tempo

Ev'ry one says a Par - the - nia John - sings way be - yond com - -pare! Ev - ah you see a Par - the - nia John - sing pran cin' down the street, You're boun' to say Um -

-um, Parthe - nia, My! You sho' is sweet! sweet!

Lilly
m.
148
box 156
no 25