You're the Flower of My Heart, Sweet Adeline.

Words by RICHARD H. GERARD.

Music by HARRY ARMSTRONG.

Andante.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in the left hand, marked f (forte) and Andante. The tempo is slow. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The score is divided into four systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are as follows:

1. In the eve-ning when I sit a-lone a-dream-ing — Of days gone
2. I can see your smil-ing face as when we wand-ered — Down by the by love — to me so dear, There's a brook - side — just you and I, And it pic-ture that in fan-cy 'oft ap-pear-ing, — Brings back the seems so real at times 'till I a-wak-en, — To find all time love — when you were near; It is then I won-der where you are my van - ished a dream gone by; If we meet sometime in af - ter years my dar - ling, And if your heart to me is still the dar - ling, I trust that I will find your love still same, For the sigh - ing wind and night - in - gale a - mine, Tho' my heart is sad and clouds a - bove are sing - ing — Are breath - ing on - ly — your own sweet name. — hov' - ring — The sun a - gain love — for me would shine. —

CHORUS.

Take me back to Old Virginia
OR
My Dear Old Southern Home.

Words by CHARLES NOEL DOUGLAS. Music by JAMES W. CAREY.

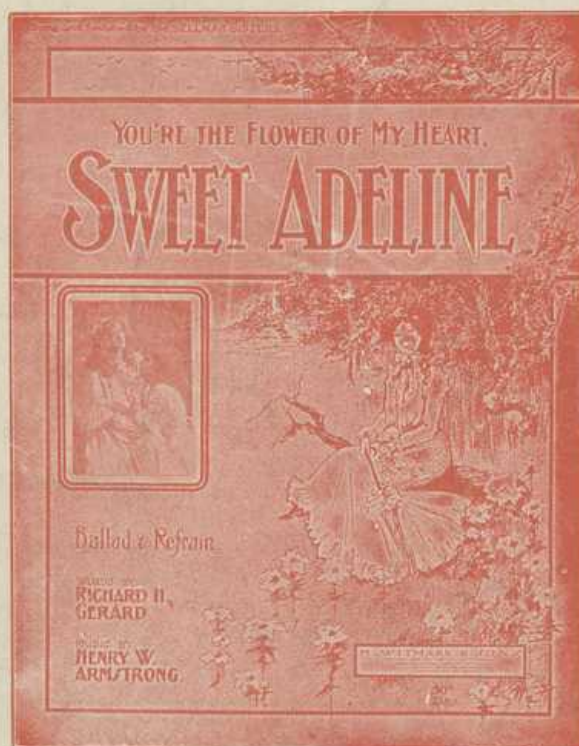

REFRAIN

Oh take me back to old Virginia Where my heart has ever been.

And let me see the old plan-ta-tion and the mead-ows bright and green.

Oh let me hear the dar-keys sing-ing soft-ly 'neath the star-ry dome.

Oh take me back to old Vir-gin-ia, To my dear old South-ern Home.

For Many Years

By EUGENE ELLSWORTH.

CHORUS

For man-y years we've watched for your re-turn-ing, For man-y years we've prayed to see your face, 'Tis man-y years with long-ing and heart years-ing, We've hoped you'd come back home and take your place For
