

Sweet Leonore

© 1910, 11.

Photo by Frank R. Hill

Words and Music
by
A. H. EASTMAN

HIGH
* MEDIUM
LOW

Sixty Cents

Fred Heltman Co.

Cleveland, Ohio

Sweet Leonore

3

Words & Music by
A. H. EASTMAN

Moderato

mf

mp

All a-lone I sit by the fire-light, With the flick'ring flames burn-ing low; When the wav-'ring shad-ows are lon-ger And the hearth is dim in the glow. Then a face I see in the em-bers, Like the face of one who is gone; She is sleep-ing, I am weep-ing, Weep-ing sad-ly here a-lone.

I'll ne'er for-get—sweet Le-o-nore; Fond mem'-ries lin-ger ev-er-more. The past is gone,—re-grets are vain,—But love will still re-main. The sigh-ing wind— is whis-p'ring

low, As in the days _____ of long a - go, My heart is

call - - - ing, o'er and o'er Le - o - nore, Le - o - nore.

'Twas in June, and ros-es were bloom-ing, When I first met sweet Le-o-nore; Then our love was plight - ed for - ev - er, And we vowed to part nev - er more. But the clouds were dark in the au - tumn, And my dear loved one passed from sight; She is sleep - ing, I am weep - ing, Weep - ing here a lone to - night.

p p dim.

I'll ne'er for - get — sweet Le - o - nore, Fond mem'ries lin - ger ev - er -

more; The past is gone, — re-grets are vain, — But love will cresc.

still re - main. The sigh-ing wind — is whis-p'ring

mp

low, As in the days — of long a - go, My heart is

call — ing, o'er and o'er Le - o-nore, Le - o-nore.

f p

f p l. B. pp dim.

A. H. EASTMAN AND FRED HELTMAN

FRED HELTMAN

REFRAIN
(with feeling)

Good night, my love, the shadow gently

fall; The stars a - bove are watch - ing ov - er

all. The dy - - - ing em-ber glow; The winds— are whis-pring soft and low, Good - night, -good - night, Good - night, — my love, good-night, Good - night, — my love, good - night.

Copyright MCMXVI by Fred Holtman Co. Cleveland, O.
International Copyright Secured.

FRED HELTMAN CO. Cleveland, Ohio, U. S. A.

Lily
MI
-D48
by 250
no 50