Un-der-neath my win-dow in a gar-den fair,
Sum-mer days may come and go but dreams re-main,

ff p

Stroll-ing side by side I see a lov-ing pair,      Back a-gain I wan-der Bit-ter min-gles with the sweet for me a-gain,      Just a scent of ro-ses to a day gone by,      In an-oth-er gar-den fair, sweet-heart, you and I: lin-gers in the air,      And a chain of mem-o-ries, fol-lows ev-ry-where:

CHORUS

We said Good-bye a-mong the ros - es Just when the day at twi-light clo - ses You gave a rose to me To keep in mem - o - ry the glo-ry of love's sto-ry Gone is the rose and you've for-got -

ten Gone is the sun-shine from the sky And tho' dreams may be vain Let me live once a - gain In Rose-time, when we said good-bye.

dreams may be vain Let me live once a - gain — In Rose-time, when we said "Good bye!"
