Your Absence Makes Me Lonely

(THAT'S A SIGN THAT I LOVE YOU)

Lyric by MARVIN LEE

Music by ABE OLMAN

Valse Moderato

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 3/4 time, marked Valse Moderato. The first system of piano accompaniment starts with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic and includes markings for rall e dim. (rallentando and diminuendo). The vocal line begins with the lyrics: "At night I sit a-lone and sigh, I'm I miss the love-light in your eyes, I think-ing, dear, of you. Since you have left, I miss those moon-light walks. I miss your love that al-ways cry, For one I love so true. And nev-er dies, I miss those June night talks. I". The piano accompaniment continues throughout the vocal lines, with dynamics ranging from p (piano) to rit. (ritardando).

Back to home and you, I'll get luck - y

CHORUS. p-f

There's a girl down south in Dix - ie Land, In an old Vir - gin - ia town, — She waits there for me, Where I long to be,

Down where the birds sing melodies of love to me; Now

I've seen girls ev-ry-where, But I find my heart is al-ways home ward bound, To a girl down south in Dix-ie Land, In—my home town. There's a town.

There's a girl down south. 8
