mf

Oft in the still-ness a-round me A dear face I seem to see All thru the grey twi-light still-ness E-choes that dear old song

Old mammy Cloe down in Mis-sou-ri Your gen-tle voice comes to me
And fills my heart with ten-der mem-'ries Mem'ries that last a life long

You told me tales of dream-land Where the fair-ies used to be And a Coal black was my old mam-my But her heart was white as snow And her thrill seems to fill my poor heart still When I think how you crooned to me voice was as sweet as an An-gel's When she sang to me long a-go.

I WISH YOU ALL THE LUCK IN THE WORLD

A truly exceptional song, expressing real sentiment, and the kind that leaves a bit of cheer.

By Abe Olman

I wish you all the luck in the world, dear, Al- tho' my heart will ache each day, I'm proud to know that you are go- ing o - ver Tho' you may face dan- ger, Don't let your courage be a stranger Fight with all your might for Old Glo - ry Wher - ev - er it may be un - furled, And when you're o - ver there, Why I
